Pilgrimage at Worcester Cathedral

Archbishop Bernard Longley and Bishop John Inge will lead an ecumenical pilgrimage on 31st January 2023 following the pilgrimages to the Holy Land, Rome, and Worcester Cathedral over the past 7 years.

Please do try to join us.

Whilst the Cathedral will be open to the public, in order to assist in the catering and to get an appropriate number of service booklets produced, please let Jim Quinn know if you would like to come. j.quinn789@btinternet.com or by phone at 01299 851021 or by text to 07960 218925

A program/service booklet will be produced for the evening. As we did six years ago, we will walk to a number of stations in the cathedral. At each station will sing, read scripture, reflect and pray. We will finish up in the crypt for night prayer, reflections, and concluding thought.

All to finish by 9.00pm.

Pilgrimage to Canterbury

Many of the pilgrims who have travelled with us have asked for this pilgrimage, the third of the trio of medieval pilgrimage journeys to the Holy Land, Rome, and Canterbury. Again, the pilgrimage will be led by Archbishop Bernard and Bishop John.

At this stage we would like expressions of interest so that we can gauge the extent of the group. The pilgrimage will be, as discussed, a two night/three day visit and once we have an idea of the size of the group we will circulate details of the hotels, timetable and prices.
